MISSION MOMENTS:

The front lines of mission -

When you call the PCC's national office, your first point of contact is the cheerful receptionist, Kim Campbell. Kim shares, "It has been a blessing to see first-hand how the work of the church ministers to so many people. From the big ideas to the little day-to-day details, we all play a role by sharing our gifts and ultimately sharing God's love." Kim's work contributes to the mission and ministry of the PCC.

We are looking for someone who might take on the role of being our new IT (Information Technologist) person for Dayspring. It is a volunteer position. Please contact Heinrich or the church office if you would consider this role, Ian B. is ready to fill you in!

Session is looking to add up to 5 new Elders.

This process, along with a description outlining the role of elders, is and will be in the weekly Sunday Bulletin September 23, September 30, October 7.

Nominations will close on October 21.

It is important to note that in order to be nominated and elected, you must be a professing member of Dayspring. If you are wondering what this means and/or are wishing to become a professing member, please speak with the Reverend Dr. Grosskopf. Please consider carefully whether you might serve in this capacity or have someone you would recommend for this office. It is up to all of us to nominate and elect Elders that may serve faithfully and effectively in the Dayspring congregation.

Ladies' Night @Dayspring Thursday, Oct 4th, 6:30 - 8pm. Please come for an evening to connect with other women @Dayspring - meet someone new or catch up with others. We'll be exploring ideas for activities or groups that you might like to participate in and are willing to help organize, if there's enough interest. We hope that there will be a variety of ideas/opportunities for women in our church community to come together, learn, have fun and build relationships. We have learned from many years of organizing events that one or two women cannot be responsible for everything & that we all need to be part of creating these opportunities it is important to us. So do join us; we'll provide tea, coffee and punch. We ask everyone to bring a small snack or dessert to share...and you can bring some wine to share that too if you'd like!! We look forward to seeing you,

Judy Smith & Heather Tansem
