MISSION MOMENTS: Equipping New Leaders

Growing up in a village in northern Malawi where the nearest health facility is 30 km away, Dorica Nkhata knows about the importance of accessible healthcare. Working at Embangweni Mission Hospital as a nurse and noticing a critical shortage of doctors, she decided to pursue her dream of becoming a doctor at the Malawi College of Medicine. She approached the Church of Central Africa Presbyterian, Livingstonia Synod, for assistance. At our partner's request, the PCC accepted Dorica into the Leadership Development Program. With financial support from Knox Presbyterian Church in St. Catharines, Ont., and Presbyterians Sharing, Dorica is on her way to Fulfilling her dream and serving those in need in rural Malawi. Presbyterians Sharing supports leadership development through medical and theological education and training programs in Kenya, Malawi, Lebanon and Eastern Europe.

DPC...our Minister Search

Thanks to everyone who took time to fill out a Pastoral Search Survey/Questionnaire, the grand total was 83 responses! Your Search Committee has a very clear picture of what our job posting needs to include & emphasize. What a successful endeavour for Dayspring! Now... as Heinrich retires at the end of June, we'll be in a transition period for a while. As a church family, let's all think about what we can do to thrive during this time.

Question of the Week:

How can we keep our church alive and vibrant through the transition period? What ideas do you have to not only help us maintain our church family but also to grow & flourish?

Please send ideas to the co-chairs, Jane deCaen janedec@shaw.ca or Heather Tansem tansemgh@telus.net

How do we hear the voice of the Holy Spirit when we are seeking a new minister? In the PCC, we prayerfully listen within our hearts and to each other. It is a group experience - we confirm the Spirit's leading. Listening to your collective voice helps guide the Search committee in their work.

The Grace and Peace of Christ be with you. Rev. William Ball Interim Moderator
