MISSION MOMENTS

“Here I am, Lord,” rang out at the 88th Commencement Service of the Near East School of Theology (NEST) in Lebanon, a seminary supported by Presbyterians Sharing. NEST graduates, Jamil, Khalil, Shant and Asadour, will serve churches in Palestine, Syria and Lebanon—three of the most troubled countries in the Middle East that are rife with violence, oppression, occupation, and severe economic, social and political crises. The hymn was their bold response to God’s calling. NEST President, Dr. George Sabra, declared, “If our seminary is able to continue graduating students with such commitment, then we must go on with our mission no matter what befalls us and our countries.”

Sunday services are also available online
At 10 am on Zoom

The NCN Christmas Turkey dinner this year provided meals for 153 people in 51 homes. One of those homes was the international house at the UofA which got 29 of the meals. Five families from Richard Secord school were also served. We had 30 volunteers helping with food preparation and delivery. Many other hands made cookies and we had enough to give each person 4 homemade cookies. We had 12 turkeys donated, helping to keep the costs down. While this initiative is a lot of work, it's also a blessing to have so many people working together to bring light into someone's otherwise lonely Christmas
